A group of approximately 12 young women are posed in a room with bright pink walls. Most of the women are wearing matching bright pink short-sleeved polo shirts. They are standing in front of white lockers that have small pink squares on them. In the background, there is a white shelving unit and a wall with some decorative elements, including a large 'V.O.D.' logo. The lighting is bright, and the overall atmosphere is vibrant and organized.

Our Students' Stories

LOD thank you very much for all the great work and teaching that all the beautiful teachers have taught me and also mostly I would like to express my gratitude for accepting me with scholarship I don't want to lie LOD has really helped me and changed my life to be an independent mother and through LOD I have gotten a job which I can count on and be able to buy bread for my kids and take them out to restaurants and mostly I would also like to say thank you very much to my principal ma'am Sharon for believing in me and never doubting on me may the good almighty bless you more for not leaving me and also to ma'am Mercy I would also like to say thank you for giving me hope and all the encouragements that u did once again thank you very much my gratitude is beyond the word and my happiness it's on another level.

Gloria Tshabu, Student

Evening Sharon, I wanted to say I managed to get a job and today was my first day as a Lash Tech and Nail Tech here in Kempton at Ela Mhawu beauty bar. I have also scored myself an interview in Tembisa for tomorrow.

Kabelo, Student

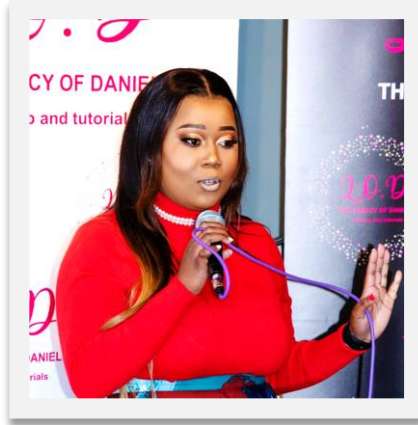

The MUA , the environment and uniforms are the best, if u really want to be a makeup artist , don't hesitate you are at the right place and right time, big up for professionalism I pray one day they open branches all over South Africa quality for the best.

Antonette Zhakata, Student
